Wichita, Kan., June 13 .- By landing on Speer for five hits and four runs in the seventh inning of Friday's game, Topeka won the third sontest of the series with the Jobbers. The game was a close and exciting one until the seventh inning when a batting rally put the game in the Jobbers lost column.

The visitors started in to play ball with the sound of the gong. Wooley with men on bases,

But in the latter half of the first the eals took the lead which they maintained until the third inning. Annis onened with a single and went to secend on Middleton's sacrifice. Hetling drew a walk and both Annis and Hetling both scored when Holland doubled to right center.

In the third the Cooley tribe evened up the game. Sylvester Olson singled C nd scored on Landreth's double.

With the score a tie the two teams fought hard until the seventh. Both Hagerman and Speer were in deep water most of the time but fast fielding prevented scoring. For the Topeka team Wooley and Davis pulled off several hair raising stunts.
